House Concert Series Presents Ed Caner and Guest Mark Dudrow

Brecksville, Ohio – On Sunday, November 17, 2013, Cuyahoga Valley National Park (CVNP) and the Conservancy for Cuyahoga Valley National Park will host their monthly house concert featuring former CVNP Artist-in-Residence Ed Caner who serves as both musician and host. The series highlights local guest performers and different styles of music in the intimate setting of a restored bank barn, on the Hines Hill Campus. The concert start at 7 p.m. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Admission: $8 adults, $6 Conservancy members. Advance sales are recommended and are available by calling 330-657-2909. Seating is limited. Facility is not wheelchair accessible. For updated ticket availability information, call the Cultural Arts Hotline at 330-650-4636, ext. 228. The hotline is updated at 2 p.m. the day of every concert and is intended to inform callers of sold-out events or weather-related cancellations.

Violinist/Fiddler Ed Caner has been labeled by the Cleveland Plain Dealer as, "One of the most versatile musicians on the planet." For nearly two decades, he has performed as a sideman for over 50 major acts and is a founding member of the band Hey Mavis.

Special guest Mark Dudrow performs a combination of traditional, roots and classical music on the cello, mandolin, and guitar. He is also a well-known tile muralist with studios in Jaroso, Colorado and Taos, New Mexico. In the not-too-distant past, Ed and Mark performed as a duo called the Devout Pedestrians in Colorado and New Mexico.

Hines Hill Conference Center is located at 1403 West Hines Hill Road, Peninsula 44264. This is approximately one mile east of Riverview Road.

CVNP encompasses 33,000 acres along the Cuyahoga River between Cleveland and Akron, Ohio. Managed by the National Park Service, CVNP combines cultural, historical, recreational, and natural activities in one setting. For more information visit www.nps.gov/cuva or call 330-657-2752.
